The cost for the Flute Festival is $85 per person and includes admission to three concerts (Friday night, Saturday afternoon, and Saturday night), all workshops (Friday, Saturday, and Sunday), lunch on Saturday, and one flute raffle ticket. Checks should be made out to Angel Cruz and must be received by February 11, 2008. If you are registering via mail, please print out this page and send it to Angel at: Angel Cruz, 5602 Ottawa Road, Centreville, VA 20120

The Potomac Flute Festival will be held at the Montgomery College Rockville Campus in the music building. The closest airports are Reagan National (DCA), Baltimore/Washington International (BWI), or Dulles International (IAD). Information on local restaurants, hotels, directions and program agenda will be posted at <http://potomacflutecircle.net>.

For a local map to the college, click : <http://www.montgomerycollege.edu/maps/Rvic.html>

On Friday afternoon, the workshops will start at 3:00PM. The Friday evening concert performers will be Autumn's Child featuring Mark Holland. The Saturday afternoon performers are Jan Seiden and Jim Morehouse. The Saturday evening concert will feature R. Carlos Nakai.

There will be workshops featuring the performing artists and a variety of related topics throughout the festival. Flute makers will have flutes available to try, order and/or purchase; other vendors are also exhibiting. Other than that, the time is open for sharing, fluting and enjoying the magic brought to us all by this marvelous instrument.

So, c'mon! What are you waiting for?!?!? Send this form back NOW!
